DETAILED ACTION

1. Upon further review of the pending claims, the examiner is providing a election/restriction on the claims. Any inconvenience is regretted.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-13 are drawn to a light beam display, where independent claim 1 does not recite any step of distorting the light beam.
 - II. Claims 14-21 are drawn to a display screen which includes the distortion step.
 - III. Claims 22-26 are drawn to a scanning system which includes the distortion step and means for shifting the beams
 - IV. Claims 27-29 is a scanning system which includes the distortion step, however there is no shifting operation performed.

Also, as disclosed in the application Figures 3 and 4 are two different embodiments. Thus the examiner requests the applicant group the appropriate claims with Figures 3 and 4.

Claims 1-21 may be grouped together in the event claim 1 included the distortion step of claim 14. However, claims 22-26 and 27-29 recite a scanning system, which can be a light beam display, but scanning systems also pertain to non-displays, such as printers/faxes etc... Thus the examiner requests the applicant to first coincide the appropriate claims with Figures 3 and 4, and then select from one of the four groups above.

In the event the applicant traverses/disagrees with the election/restriction, the examiner requests the applicant to respond in detail why they are not patentably distinct.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

PAIR (<http://pair.uspto.gov>) provides customers direct secure access to their own patent application status information, as well as to general patent information publicly available. EFS allows customers to electronically file patent application documents securely via the Internet. EFS is a system for submitting new utility patent applications and pre-grant publication submissions in electronic publication-ready form. EFS includes software to help customers prepare submissions in extensible Markup Language (XML) format and to assemble the various parts of the application as an electronic submission package. EFS also allows the submission of Computer Readable Format (CRF) sequence listings for pending biotechnology patent applications, which were filed in paper form.
